

Demolition v Refurbishment?

We're looking forward to the discussion!

We're pleased to be attending the GreenSky Thinking Seminar hosted by ECD Architects on Monday 15th May. This programme will examine refurbishment as an alternative to demolition and the sustainability implications. We're looking forward, in particular, to looking at the data from a live ECD project and understanding the arguments for both sides.

#greenskythinking2017