

New Project for London Borough of Southwark

We have just been awarded the Walworth Door Entry project for the London Borough of Southwark. We will be installing door entry systems to several residential blocks across the Walworth area of Southwark. These works are planned to take 40 weeks and will start imminently.