

Back in the West End for the Langham Estate

Following a successful project earlier this year for the Langham Estate we are delighted to be starting another project for this valued client. Back in the West End again working on a project in Mortimer Street, W1 along with Robson Warren Architects. Works include the refurbishment of office space and kitchenettes at Gilmoora House.