

A new project with Southern Housing Group

We have been awarded a new project for Southern Housing Group. Hogarth Court is a sheltered housing complex with 33 properties based in Whitechapel. This is a social housing refurbishment project and works will include new kitchen and bathrooms, new windows, the construction of a new entrance canopy plus perimeter fencing and landscaping. Works are expected to take 32 weeks.